WestBow Press, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. In this modern age, many people, particularly the young, have been injected with many teachings of how to conduct themselves in society in order to be successful or fit. As if that's not enough, churches stress them with bunch of instructions of how to conduct themselves toward God. They believe as "the mature in faith" it is their responsibilities to prompt the prompt. Instead of making more people to grow in their faith, they caused some of them to walk away from the Way. Instead of being alive some of them are being killed slowly but sure. They think life is already complicated, why would need God if He can only add another problem in life. So as "the mature" they decided to choose neither God nor world ever since, they count on themselves. Without realize this also means for both God and the world! Can anyone serve two masters? The worst is churches generalize them all as the "unrepentant generation" without thinking to change the way they reach these kinds of people. Talking about things that have nothing to do with the Truth. The truth that...
